REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION

Spend some time reflecting and discussing the text from today's message. Here are some questions to consider.

- Read the text and surrounding context several times. Underline key words, people, and ideas.
- Think about the narrative of Luke so far. What about Jesus' mission challenged those in power (religious and political)?
- Although many of the people were frustrated by Jesus' message, his heart for them remained. What can you learn about the heart of Christ in Luke's gospel?
- What needed to change for the religious leaders and political rulers to follow Christ? Think about this question personally.
